

Virtual Advising with EducationUSA Russia

Project Title	Virtual Advising with EducationUSA Russia
Project Summary	Assist Russian prospective graduate students interested in studying in the U.S. and support public diplomacy efforts in Russia by supporting EducationUSA's mission through peer advising and conducting virtual workshops/presentations.
Country	Russia

Project Description

The VSFS intern with the United States Embassy in Moscow will assist with public diplomacy projects in coordination with the EducationUSA Russia. The intern will have a direct impact on Russian graduate students and provide essential support to advising centers throughout Russia. The duties of the intern will include but are not limited to the following: 1) conduct virtual TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) and GRE test-prep sessions; 2) give virtual presentations on academic writing and academic integrity.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)

Cultural diplomacy

Editing and proofreading

Writing

Additional Information

Last year presentations and materials can be provided for a review. We encourage interns to develop new presentations for the course in 2019-2020. This work can be done in cooperation with EducationUSA adviser. The following skills would be a plus:

- Experience in advising students both U.S. & international students;
- Experience in leading conversation clubs or experience leading English practice sessions;
- Experience in test prep (TOEFL, GRE)

- Be familiar with online video conferencing platforms.

The VSFS program opens up opportunities to build long-term relationships with Russian young professionals and prospective graduate students, advance students' awareness of the American higher education system, and contribute to professional development. This is your chance to participate in establishing collaboration and promote humanitarian ties between the two nations.

Language Requirements

None